Flexibility of learning space

Look carefully at the posters below. Which design principles have the designers used to capture your attention?

Classroom incorporates the use of both physical and virtual space.
E.g. Blended learning approach

Flexible learning space allows easy movement and facilitates interactions among students and teachers.

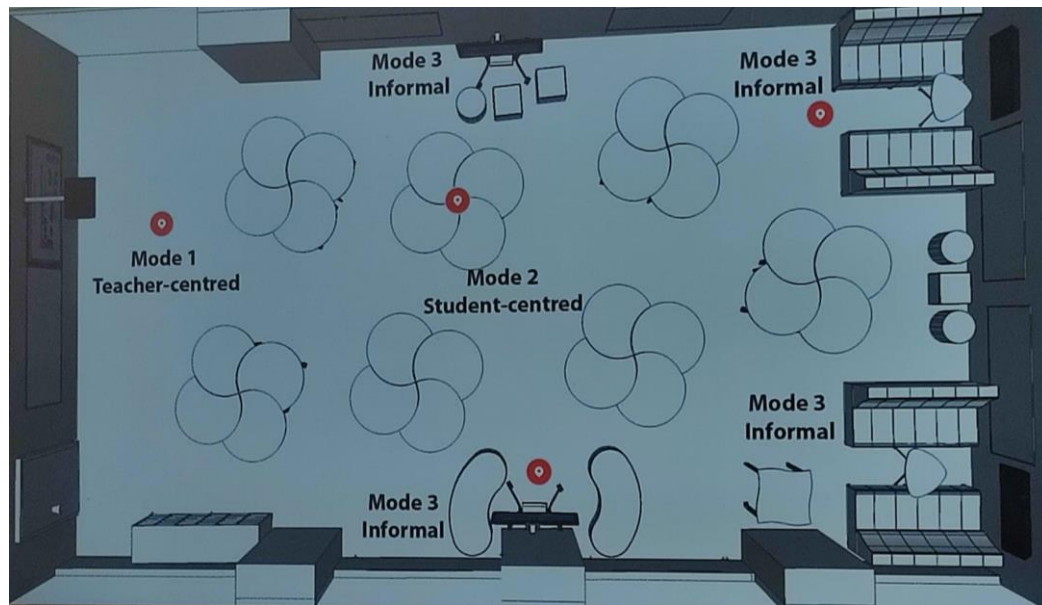

Students can modify the learning space to fit their needs, strengthening student autonomy.

What type of learning activities work best in each setting?

9. Your words matter!

	INSTEAD OF...	TRY
	Be quiet.	Can you use a softer voice?
	What a mess!	It looks like you had fun! How can we clean up?
	Do you need help?	I'm here to help if you need me.
	I explained how to do this yesterday.	Maybe I can show you another way.
	Do I need to separate you?	Could you use a break?
	Stop crying.	It's okay to cry.
	Do you have any questions?	What questions do you have?
	You're OK.	How are you feeling?
	It's not that hard.	You can do hard things.
	We don't talk like that.	Please use kind words.

FUTURE CLASSROOM LAB (FCL)

- By European Schoolnet
- EU funded projects since 2012
- Over 2500 classrooms across 20 European countries
- Rethink learning space design, innovative pedagogy and the use of ICT

The Future Classroom Lab is formed by six different learning zones. Each space highlights a specific area of learning and teaching and helps to rethink important aspects related to them: physical space and layout, resources, and tools, changing roles of student and teacher, and how to support different learning styles. The learning zones reflect the many ways in which flexible space design and educational technology can facilitate active learning pedagogy and contribute to the development of 21st century key competences.

The Interact classroom reminds both teachers and students to participate actively in the learning process and interact with one another.

Interactivity can be enhanced with the use of technology, which can encourage at the same time a more differentiated instruction.

In the Exchange zone, students' learning is enhanced by teamwork, learning by playing, brainstorming and peer-to-peer collaboration.

This can be either face-to-face or online, synchronous or asynchronous.

Sharing of ideas is encouraged and collaboration is facilitated.

The Present zone brings the communicative dimension into the learning process.

The present zone is a dedicated area for interactive presentations that, through its design and layout, encourages interaction and feedback.

Online publication and sharing is also encouraged.

The Develop zone is a space for informal learning and self-reflection where students can work independently at their own pace using personal learning devices, learning diaries and portfolios.

It encourages students to develop metacognitive skills on their own and promotes lifelong learning strategies.

Creative Activity: Gallery of Strengths

- Choose one of character strengths that describes you as a person (something that you use a lot in your everyday life, something that is natural and easy for you and you feel it's your strength)
- Draw it – how you use that strength in your everyday life? How you see that strength?

Activity: Draw your learning space/classroom

- Draw your classroom or the learning space you have in your working premises/at home.
- List down three things you would like to change or modify in the future.

Activity: Dream Island

- Imagine your dream island – how it looks like? Who lives there? What features your island has?
- Disaster approaching! – there is a disaster approaching your island. Try to find a way to survive. Don't destroy your island. Make modifications and creative solutions to stay safe!

Activity: Let's re-design our learning space

- List down the benefits and struggles you currently have. What can you change? Who to involve to the process (people, funding)? Are the changes minor (use what you already have) or would you like to participate to bigger project?
- Think about the physical environment, social environment and learning environment.
